

WILDLIFE MANAGEMENT WORKSHOP

March 11, 2010

MARIANNA, FLORIDA

(Jackson County Agriculture Office Complex)

AGENDA

8:30 - Registration

8:50 – Welcome and Introduction – Arlo H. Kane, Clyde Smith

9:00 – Managing Small Parcels in a Large Landscape– Don Buchanan, Wildlife Biologist, Fish and Wildlife Conservation Commission

9:30 – Snakes, Frogs, and Spiders of NW Florida – Mike Wilson, Wildlife Biologist, Fish and Wildlife Conservation Commission

10:00 – Forest Tree Identification– Barry Stafford, County Forester, Division of Forestry

10:30 – Break

11:00 – Bats and Bat Houses– Dr. Holly Ober, Assistant Professor – Wildlife Ecology, University of Florida, IFAS Extension Service

11:30 – Butterflies and Butterfly Gardening in NW Florida – Bill Boothe, Naturalist and Wildlife Photographer, Natural Encounters

12:00 – Lunch (courtesy of National Wild Turkey Federation)

1:00 – Common Birds and their Habitats in the Panhandle – Alan Knothe, Wildlife Biologist, Fish and Wildlife Conservation Commission

1:30 – Oaks and Acorns, Their Value to Wildlife – Arlo H. Kane, Wildlife Biologist, Fish and Wildlife Conservation Commission

2:00 – Exotic Plants and their Control – Clyde Smith, IPM Specialist, University of Florida IFAS Extension Service

2:30 – Endangered Plants of the Panhandle – Bill Boothe, Naturalist and Wildlife Photographer, Natural Encounters

3:00 – Longleaf Pine: History and Restoration in the Southeast – Brian Zielinski, Director of Conservation Operations, National Wild Turkey Federation

3:30 – Grants and Programs for Landowner Assistance – Jeremy Martin, Wildlife Biologist, Fish and Wildlife Conservation Commission

3:45 - Adjourn

Lunch will be provided free of charge but you must pre-register by March 8, 2010. To pre-register, contact the IFAS Extension office in Marianna, FL at (850) 482-9620

DIRECTIONS:

Take Exit 136 off I-10. Travel north on highway 276 (becomes Pennsylvania Avenue at the Marianna city limit approximately 1.3 miles. The Cooperative Extension Service is located in the Jackson County Agriculture Office Complex. If traveling U.S. Highway 90 (becomes Lafayette Street at the city limits), turn south at the juncture of Lafayette Street and Pennsylvania Avenue (St. Rd. 276). Travel approximately 1.3 miles

